

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Bill and Dorothy Hustead moved to Wall in 1931 and purchased the Wall Drug Store; and,

WHEREAS, Their store has prospered through the years because of hard work and aggressive promotion; and,

WHEREAS, Their involvement in civic affairs in Wall and in South Dakota has contributed much to the quality of life; and,

WHEREAS, Their interest in tourism development has contributed to expansion of the industry in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Their employment of hundreds of students has helped individuals from many states secure an education; and,

WHEREAS, Their high standard of ethics and devotion to God and country has set examples for their family and the citizens of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Their business is an excellent example of America and South Dakota's initiative and enterprise, and their hard work and deep sense of civic responsibility should be recognized:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 12, 1988, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
